Pennsylvania for Blaine—Rhode Island Backs Republican Ticket Sure to Win.

ILLINOIS.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 19.—[Special.]—The most serious occupation here is a report that Gen. James B. Slaughter is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency. The rumor has been afloat of the kind in Washington, but Mr. Schmidt and his cohort were somewhat astonished to find a similar story throughout the country, and a conference of Chicago and a number of the State Democrats was held at the Leland House this morning. It is believed that the movement is in behalf of the Democratic ticket, and that if Gen. Slaughter should get the Democratic nomination he would carry Illinois by 50,000 majority. It is believed here

COL. INGERSOLL.

His New Lecture on "Orthodoxy" Delivered at Central Music-Hall Before 2,000 People.

The Popularity of Christianity Compels Skilton to Pretend to Believe What They Do Not.

He Quite Has Orthodox Religion to Keep Him Believing at the Head and Tail-ender of the Band.

Col. Robert G. Ingersoll lectured at the Central Music-Hall last evening on "Orthodoxy." There were 2,000 in the audience, every seat being occupied and several hundred people standing up. He entertained himself and them for an hour and a half. Speaking of the popularity of Christianity, he said: It is a curious fact that any man believing in the truth of the Christian religion would profess that it deserves no other testimony than its popularity. It is remarkable, and without any great effort of the mind, that evidence ought to be the Christian religion should satisfy any man that did. It is a curious religion in that respect to be a proof which it has outgrown for centuries, which is not used in settling any question, which is not used in settling a question where it is said to belong, and yet I believe it has been adopted against reason and every fact I was instructed, but that I took the side that I was in for the sake of my children and the common weight and the weight justifying the accusation. (Applause.)

It gives an immense popularity to say to the Christian audience that unbelief subjects a being and of the greatest evils. (Laughter.) It is a well known. (Laughter.) It has been established here, have thousands suffering of the future and confidence of the hours. (Laughter.) It is a question that no longer satisfies the intelligence of this country; a religion that no longer satisfies the heart; a religion which has ceased to be a power; a religion that grew in the midst of darkness and fear; a religion that fills the world with hate. It is a religion that I am going to do what little I can while I live to destroy; and to the grave I mean because it is a good citizenship, I regard a religion that never found heart and absolutely opposed. (Applause.)

[illegible]

The most wonderful fact in the world of religion, a world of change. There is progress in all lines and departments except in the realm of the religious mind. Creeds are not what they were. Nobody believes as he used to. There is not that confidence in a hereafter, a definite heaven of the past. The old hell has gone out of fashion. There is a new heaven and a new hell. The advantage is with the heaven of the present. There is more good and more happiness in it. The old heaven was filled with the ignorant, the superstitious, the cowardly, the hypocritical, the mean, the malicious, the revengeful, the infamous. The new heaven is filled with the wise, the good, the generous, the loving, the noble, the heroic, the honest, the true. The old heaven was filled with those who had been cowards in this world, who had been afraid to think, who had been afraid to express their honest thoughts, who had been afraid to live their own lives, who had been afraid to love. The new heaven is filled with those who have been brave enough to think, to express their thoughts, to live their own lives, to love. The old heaven was filled with those who had been afraid to think, to express their thoughts, to live their own lives, to love. The new heaven is filled with those who have been brave enough to think, to express their thoughts, to live their own lives, to love. The old heaven was filled with those who had been afraid to think, to express their thoughts, to live their own lives, to love. Washington, D. Inside History of the Events Which Led to the Reduction in Rates Granted.

The New Scale Intended to Indemnify Trade Have Nearly Agreed to Form a Pool.

An Interesting History of the Events which Led to the Reduction in Rates Granted by Chief General Harris.

The official record of the proceedings of the meeting of the Committee of the Trunk Lines held in New York last week to take action regarding the unsatisfactory condition of east-bound freight rates has just been received by the General Managers of the various Eastern roads. It proves to be a highly interesting and instructive document.

In calling the meeting to order, the Chairman stated that it had been called under the resolution of the Trunk Line Committee of the 15th inst., which the Committee is required to report what measures have been established, and if not found that the agreement made by the Presidents July 1, 1893, is working with such freedom and harmony as to secure the best results possible to the several parties thereto; that all have observed in good faith the spirit and letter of the agreement, and that the rates and rules now being maintained are fair and reasonable as between shipper and shipper, and as between locality and locality, and between the railroads themselves, and that the rates and rules now being maintained by the several lines are in conformity to distance rates, and will not cause less than local rates and settlement at St. Louis, Peoria and Cincinnati, Louisville & Nashville, Ohio River, and Indianapolis to the Eastern and Central Traffic Association points, and that the Eastern and Central Traffic Association lines will not make lower rates than are now in force from the Missouri River points to the Atlantic seaboard.

The action of the Committee in the matter of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad was then considered, and the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Chairman be instructed to inform the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad Company that the Committee has no objection to the proposed reduction in rates on coal from Mississippi River points to Chicago, provided the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad Company will agree to maintain the

New York, March 25.—[Special.]—A special meeting of the stockholders of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad has been called for April 7 to vote upon a proposition for a new issue of bonds. The issue of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago Road is the Pennsylvania Railroad provides that the stockholders of the board shall have that property in good running order. To pay for the necessary betterments the board proposes the issue of the new bonds, which bonds are "collateral bonds." So long as this stock secures the first mortgage bonds of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago Company were satisfied to allow it, but when it proposed to mortgage other stock the Pennsylvania did not feel that they had the right to have it so put. The issue of the "betterment stock" was stopped, and negotiations have been pending with a view to providing some other form of security to cover the costs of the improvements.

At a recent meeting the idea was suggested that both parties to the lease could be satisfied by making an issue of mortgage bonds to such a amount as would equal the bottom of the present or pure stock to exchange their stock for bonds under the following such exchange of bonds would not increase the fixed charges of the lessee company, and would not increase the amount upon the dividends on the stock of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago Company. The Pennsylvania Railroad provides that the stockholders of the lessee shall have the right to subscribe to the new issue of bonds, and the proceeds of such issue are to be used for the betterments of the property.

Special Dispatch to The Tribune.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 25.—[Special.]—There is a good feeling of satisfaction throughout commercial and social circles over the assertion that of a prominent Chicago business man to the editor of Minneapolis residents. The gentleman, who is formerly in the city, is Mr. E. P. [illegible]

[illegible]—Democratic politics has attracted the attention of citizens today with the assertion that there is no compromise. The Democratic majority, [illegible] opening this morning, will be cut in such a way, when the last ballot is counted, that the Democratic [illegible] will be left out, proceeding as Republican nominees, as here stated. The election of the governing board and officers will, according to conviction, overboard the present Mayor, C. A. Smith. There is the best sort of a short swing Republicans to vote, but many a short way to the advance [illegible] of interests and others who wish to be well represented, to the needs of one of the best [illegible] Democratic ticket, the "widespread," policy will give a fair knowledge for its principles.

[illegible] Northern Pacific's Woes.

It has been a long time, if ever, since Minneapolis and St. Paul have been arrayed in such a universal expression of indignation as that brought out by the late freight tariff of the Northern Pacific Railroad. It is said the real [illegible] to Commissioner Miller of New York that discrimination points are also met from the Minneapolis [illegible]. This is especially felt in this city and St. Paul. Both have just begun to [illegible] through that country. The Minneapolis Board of Trade and St. Paul Chamber of Commerce have both had meetings to [illegible] publicity to secure a remedy, and the press is practically unanimous, have been [illegible] to their complaints. A prominent Chicago has been here [illegible] with a board of the [illegible] and business men in behalf of the [illegible] to secure a remedy, and the [illegible] of the Northern Pacific have been [illegible] to the [illegible] of the people.
